CREATIVE SCHOOLS CERTIFICATION ROADMAP

CPS Elementary School
Arts Liaison: Arts Liaison
Principal: Principal
Data: SY22-23 as of December 04, 2023

What is the Purpose of this Document?

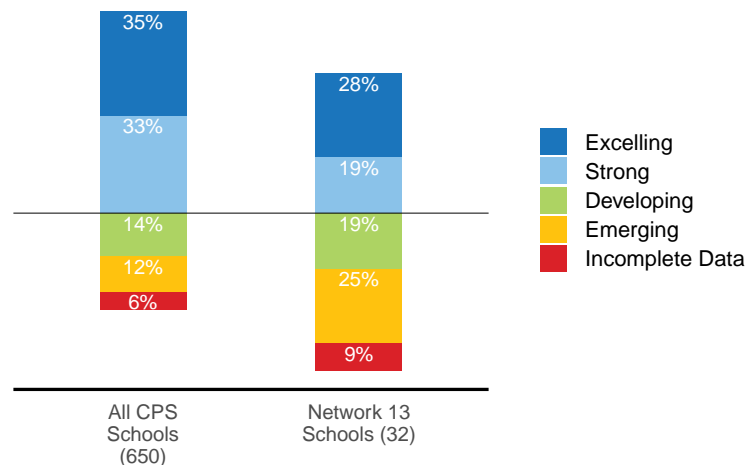

Ingenuity and the CPS Department of Arts Education are pleased to present CPS Elementary School with your 2022-23 Creative Schools Roadmap. This report provides you with your summative Creative Schools Certification (CSC) rating and is based on the data you reported on the Creative Schools Survey in the fall of 2023.

In addition to providing you with your summative rating, this Roadmap also outlines the points you received on each aspect of the Certification on both Access and Quality metrics. It details your areas of strength and opportunities for growth, including the Creative Schools Supports that are available for the 2023-24 school year.

Read this alongside your CSC Scoring sheet to best understand and utilize your CSC data to enhance arts education in your school.

Planning for Subsequent School Years

CPS Elementary School received a total of 34 points with a final CSC rating of Emerging (fewer than 70 points). Your school is 6 points away from achieving the next higher rating of Developing. To be rated as Excelling, your school needs an additional 56 points. Excelling schools are those that meet the goals and priorities outlined in the CPS Arts Education Plan.

To improve your rating for the 2023-24 school year or plan for the 2024-25 school year, assuming all else holds equal, we have compiled the following recommendations to consider.

Creative Schools Certification Element	Details	How many more points will my school receive?
Staffing Ratio	Your school reported no arts instructors. In order to receive full points, a school must have a ratio of 1 Arts Teacher for every 350 students or better. (Note that a smaller ratio is better)	9
Minutes of Instruction	Your school reported 0 average weekly minutes of Arts instruction throughout the year. To receive full points, weekly minutes of instruction should meet or exceed 120.	12
Percent Access	Your school reported 0% of students received Arts instruction. To receive full points, percent access should be 100% of all enrolled students.	9
Arts Learning Standards	Your school reported that you do not use any specific arts learning standards. To receive full points, arts teachers must use the Updated (2018) IL Arts Learning Standards .	8
Arts Inclusion in School Governance	Your school received 0 points. In order to receive full points, all three governance situations would need to be true at a school.	8
Budget	Your school reported allocating $0.00 per student. In order to receive full points, your school must allocate $7 per student or more.	8
Arts Partnerships	Your school reported no arts partnerships. To receive full points, your school must report at least one arts partnership. Utilize artlook@Map to find partnership opportunities.	4
Professional Learning	Your school reported that instructors / administrators did not participate in arts-specific professional learning. To receive full points, at least one staff person must participate in arts-specific professional learning. Professional Learning opportunities from CPS can be found here .	4

Creative Schools Certification Element	Details	How many more points will my school receive?
Family and Community Engagement	Your school reported that they did not have family, parent, or community engagement in the arts. To receive full points, your school must offer at least one event for those stakeholders.	2
Instructional Approach	To receive full points, your teachers must utilize one of the listed instructional approaches.	2

Creative Schools Supports

This section outlines Creative School supports — including the Creative Schools Fund and Arts Essentials Grants. Together, these Funds empower schools to:

- ACCESS funding that supports arts instruction as identified in their Creative Schools Roadmap
- BUILD partnerships that enhance arts experiences for students
- SUPPORT longer-term arts planning and implementation

Creative Schools Support Goals

Grants offered through Ingenuity and CPS will advance a series of goals:

Arts Essentials Fund: Awarded to all schools that complete the Creative Schools Survey
Materials & Supplies	$1000 loaded into schools budgets to support the purchase of materials and supplies specifically for arts courses.

Creative Schools Fund: School-Level Opportunities
Partnerships (Open and competitive grants process)	Arts residencies and student learning experiences, including field trips and professional learning, conducted in partnership with an arts organization.
Minutes of Instruction Elementary Schools Only (Invitation only process)	A scheduling consultancy to support revisions to Master Schedules that bring schools closer to meeting the recommended 120 minutes weekly average of arts instruction.
Disciplines and Depth High Schools Only (Invitation only process)	Curriculum consultancy, teacher skills development, planning and supplies to expand disciplines and depth.
Dedicated Arts Spaces (Invitation only process)	Improving the spaces in the school to increase arts access.

The Department of Arts Education also offers robust professional learning and details that can be found here. For more information about Arts Essentials, please email cpsarts@cps.edu.
