

What is the Purpose of this Document?

Ingenuity and the CPS Department of Arts Education are pleased to present CPS High School's 2024-25 Creative Schools Roadmap. This report provides you with your summative Creative Schools Certification (CSC) rating, based on the data submitted during the fall 2025 survey window. The data in this report is for SY24-25 as of December 23, 2025.

In addition to providing you with your summative rating, this Roadmap also outlines the points you received on each element of the Certification on both Access and Quality metrics. It details your areas of strength and opportunities for growth, including the Creative Schools Supports that are available right now.

Read this alongside the Creative Schools Certification Rubric to best understand and utilize your CSC data to enhance arts education in your school.

While your school was rated as Excelling for 2024-25, to maintain your rating for the 2025-26 school year and plan for the 2026-27 school year, assuming all else holds equal, we have compiled the following recommendations to consider. The following may increase the total number of total points your school will earn. If you know that something has changed from 2024-25 to the current school year and are concerned your school’s overall rating may be adversely affected, the following items can also be considered to earn more points on other metrics.
